BURNING OF A CRIB LEADS TO MOONSHINE STILL

Illicit Distillery Found In Adams County By Blood Hounds Used After Corn Crib Burned.

Manchester, Ohio, Dec. 15.—A crib belonging to Dariga Dryden in Monroe township burned at noon Thursday. It contained three hundred bushels of corn and one hundred bushels of mill feed. The Manchester bloodhounds were telephoned for and were taken to the Dryden land by enforcement officer Sowers. He says the hounds took a direct trail to the home of Miner Grooms. When the officers with a search warrant from Esquire Perry of that township entered the Grooms home, he says he found a still, grain mash and mulo.

The officer brought Grooms and the confiscated outfit to this jail Thursday afternoon. Friday morning when arraigned before Mayor Osborn he entered a guilty plea and was fined $400 and costs. He was taken to the county jail at once by Marshal Garrett and the confiscated goods were held for the prosecutor. Miner Grooms is a son of Ilmer Grooms is 20 years of age and married. Both men are well known at Manchester.

A month ago he was arrested for possessing moonshine and fined $100 and costs by the mayor. Unless friends come to the relief of the unfortunate young man, he faces a long term of imprisonment.

On the day the Dryden crib was burned Grooms had been working in the woods near it and that explains the action of the bloodhounds going to his home. There is no clue to the mysterious burning of the granary.

CONTROL OF C. & O. LINES MAY PASS TO FINANCIERS

Report Circulated In New York That Cleveland Firm of Financiers May Obtain the Controlling Stock.

New York, Dec. 14.—The Van Sweringen Company of Cleveland, financiers, are negotiating to add the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad to their transportation holdings. It was learned in the financial district today.

They now have an option on the holdings of Henry Huntington, Chairman of the board. It is understood that if this option, which expires early next year, is taken up control of the company will go with it.

G. P. Van Swearingen, Chairman of the New York, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad, was in New York today to confer with officers of the Chesapeake & Ohio. None of these executives would discuss the situation.

The Van Swearingen Company now operates 1,725 miles of railway through control of the New York, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad, Toledo, St. Louis & Western and Lake Erie & Western. Its acquisition of the other road would give the company control of about 4,250 miles of road.

FLAT DENIAL OF ALL TESTIMONY IS MADE BY HARDMAN

Defendant In Winchester Murder Case Denies All Evidence of Prosecution Witnesses—Attempts Alibi.

Winchester, Ky., Dec. 15.—Seabee Hardman, charged with the murder of Leon Renaker during the night of July 24, was placed on the witness stand Thursday as the first witness for the defense, the attorneys for the Commonwealth announcing at the opening of the afternoon session that they would not offer any more witnesses after two and a half days of direct testimony for the prosecution.

Under examination by Wallace Muir, who has conducted most of the cross-examination for the defense, Hardman at the afternoon session denied practically every point in the testimony by witnesses for the state, and responding in monosyllables to questions put to him by his attorney, denied killing Len Renaker, having improper relations with Mrs. Renaker or ever speaking a word of affection to her. Hardman's manner was a trifle less assured on the witness stand than he had been before during the trial and he sat most of the time with his hands clasped tightly together in his lap.

At the night session Hardman remained practically unperturbed under a severe cross-examination by Maury Kemper, special counsel for the Commonwealth. The cross-examination commenced at 7 o'clock and continued until 10:30 when court was adjourned with the tact understanding that Hardman would return to the stand the first thing in the morning. Testimony tending to discredit defendant's character was extracted from him at the outset of the cross-examination by a series of questions about his former marriage. He admitted that after separating from his wife she had sued him to recover her property and he had paid her $900, selling his motor truck to raise the money. Kemper tried to show that Hardman had got rid of his wife's property and money during the year they lived together and that the truck was bought with her money, but Hardman denied this.

"TAKE THE SCHOOLS OUT OF POLITICS"

Colvin Pleads In Address To Superintendents—Wants Children Benefitted.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 15.—An appeal to the county school superintendents of the state to "take the schools out of politics and place new institutions where they are needed," was made Thursday by George Colvin, State superintendent, at the opening session of the county school superintendents' convention.

"If new schools are to be established they should go where they are needed by the children of the state and not to satisfy the local pride of communities or to reward the efforts of lobbyists," Mr. Colvin declared in keynote address of the meeting.

The biggest problem the superintendent must face, according to Mr. Colvin, is to provide elementary training for the 600,000 children of the state. Higher education will come next, but the children in the rural communities must be taken care of first, according to Mr. Colvin.

DAN COUGHLIN DIES AS RESULT OF BEING GASSED IN FRANCE

Maysville Boy Who Served Through All of the World War Died Friday Morning as a Result of Injuries Sustained in Battle.

Daniel Coughlin, well known Maysville boy, veteran of the World War, died at the home of his father, Mr. John Coughlin, in Second street Friday morning at about 10 o'clock after a long illness of tuberculosis said to have been brought on by being gassed in France.

Dan Coughlin was 26 years of age and a more clever and likable lad never lived. Until the last week he was enabled to get about town although his friends noticed that his health was fast failing. On Monday of this week he was down town mingling with his friends.

He joined the Kentucky state guards months before the United States entered the World War. A company of guards on recruiting duty were stationed at the local court house when he volunteered his services to his state and nation. Serving his full term and having seen duty in many of the severest battles of the world conflict, Dan re-enlisted for a year after the armistice and went with the American Army of Occupation into Germany. He returned to Maysville at the close of this enlistment badly broken in health.

Besides his father, he is survived by three sisters, Mrs. John Plummer, Mrs. T. A. Higgins and Miss Ann Coughlin, and three brothers, Messrs. John, Edward and William Coughlin.

Daniel Coughlin died a hero of the World War as truly as if he had died on a French battlefield stricken down by an enemy's bullet.

The funeral will be held from St. Patrick's church Monday morning at 9 o'clock and burial will be made in St. Patrick's cemetery at Washington.

SAMUEL OUTTEN DIES.

Samuel Outten, well known local character, for many years a resident of Maysville, died at the City Alms house Friday morning after a long illness of a complication of diseases. Funeral arrangements have not as yet been made.

RAIN SAVES CITY MENACED BY FIRE

$50,000 Blaze Levels Utilities Plant At Georgetown; Water and Light Cut Off; College Is Dismissed.

Georgetown, Ky., Dec. 15.—A heavy downpour of rain saved the city of Georgetown from complete destruction by fire at noon Thursday when the plant of the Georgetown, Water, Gas, Power and Electric Company was leveled by a $50,000 blaze.

Rainfall and bucket brigades kept the flames from reaching surrounding buildings. The court house and other municipal buildings were imperiled. The city is in darkness tonight. All wells and cisterns in the town and surrounding countryside are being taxed to the utmost for a new water supply.

Georgetown College which has no private light and water system, was dismissed indefinitely this afternoon and 400 students left immediately for their homes.

BAND MEMBERS TO GET MONEY SUNDAY BEFORE CHRISTMAS

Manager J. Barbour Russell Announces Distribution of the Band Funds at Christmas Entertainment Sunday, Dec. 21.

Colonel J. Barbour Russell, manager of the Maysville Boys' Bands, Friday announced that he is busily engaged in getting ready to pay the members of the bands their annual settlement. This year, as for several years past, this money will be given the members of the bands at the Community Christmas party which will this year be held at the Washington Opera House on the Sunday afternoon before Christmas.

Colonel Russell has not announced the sum to be given the members of the bands as this is a matter he always endeavors to keep secret that the youthful musicians might have a Christmas surprise.

Both hands played several engagements this year, however, and the fund will be a neat one. Expenses on all the contracts the band has had have been heavy. The purpose of the hands is not that the members might make money anyway and the directors don't want to see the bands become a business proposition.

THERE'S LOTS OF CLASS TO CLASS IN ATHLETICS

Maysville Baseball Player, Line Coach of M. H. S. Football Squad, In Middletown Line-up for Last Game of the Season.

Thursday's Cincinnati Post says: Fans journeying to Redland Field Sunday to witness the final game of the local football season between the Lockland and Middletown teams for the Spalding circuit title will have an opportunity of seeing action one of the players who helped Centre College defeat Harvard by a 6-to-0 score in 1921.

Ray Cless, Middletown boy, played a part of the game against Harvard and shared in the favorable comment that eastern gridiron critics heaped upon the doughty eleven representing the Danville (Ky.) College.

Class, who will play fullback Sunday, is a drop-kicker of considerable skill, can throw passes from 45 to 60 yards, and can run ends with surprising speed for his 190 pounds, while his line-plunging and all-round defensive work will stamp him in the minds of the fans witnessing Sunday's contest as one of the best all-round players that has graced a local gridiron this year.

Besides being a wonderful football player, the Middletown youth seems destined to shine in professional baseball, as the record he made with his warclub while playing third base for Maysville, Ky., the past summer, attracted the attention of several scouts.

Class seems to be appropriately named, and 500 Middletown rooters will accompany their team Sunday to make the welkin ring with words of encouragement. Class and his teammates, Frank Cless will referee Sunday fray, starting it promptly at 2:15 p. m.

COMMENT

Put an Anti-tuberculosis Christmas seal on your Christmas mail. It is not only attractive giving a Christmas appearance to the mail but it also helps a good cause. One good feature of this campaign is that three-fourths of the cash raised by this sale is retained at home. The other one-fourth is used to fight the white plague in Kentucky.

New 1923 automobile license tags have begun to make their appearance. They are smaller and much more attractive than the tags for this year. These old 1922 tags are to be discarded before the first of January.

Appeals from the City Court have thus far availed the appellants nothing in Circuit Court. Hal. Curran is making a splendid Police Court Judge and his judgments are fair and yet firm and fearless.

Prof. B. O. Hutchinson's suggestion that in the future November 11th—Armistice Day, be designated as Thanksgiving Day and both holidays be combined, is not meeting with much applause over the nation. People are loathe to change from the last Thursday in November.

It looks like Scobee Hardman got too much of Ike Miller's good whiskey and the whiskey did too much talking in the Clarke county jail. Leon Renaker's death seems to have been a deliberately planned murder and the more evidence that is heard the more horrible the crime appears.

Contributions to the business men's Christmas fund is certainly a real worth while form of Home Missions and it appears from reports of committeemen that there will be plenty of cash on hand to see that there is not an empty stocking in Maysville and its suburbs on Christmas morning.

Again the money made by the local 'Boys' Bands will be distributed to them in the form of a Christmas gift. Manager J. Barbour Russell has announced that a distribution of the band's earnings will be made at the Washington Opera House Christmas concert to be given on the Sunday afternoon before Christmas. The boys will likely receive neat sums this year.

SOLDIERS ARRESTED AFTER MAN IS SHOT IN NECK

Louisville. — William C. Kennedy, 26 years old, a civilian employee at Camp Henry Knox, was shot in the neck during an argument in the soft drink stand of Joseph Bauman. Horace W. Barnette, 22, a private in the Quartermaster Corps, was arrested and charged with the shooting. John P. Ditchfield, 28, also a soldier, was charged with being an accessory.

American women made their advent in practical politics in 1940, when "Tippecanoe and Tyler too" were morse into power partly by the songs of the women. The Whig meetings in that year were, for the first time, attended by women, while the Democratic meetings were composed of men alone.

CHURCH COUNCIL TO MEET IN INDIANAPOLIS

Thirty-two Protestant Denominations to Be Represented at Meeting
Held in the Indiana
Capital.

Indianapolis, Dec. 14. — More than one hundred prominent churchmen, representing thirty-two protestant denominations, gathered here yesterday for the opening session of the annual meeting of the executive committee of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

The meeting will continue through Friday with the day sessions devoted to business and public mass meetings in the evenings.

Foremost among the subjects which will be discussed, it is said, are: International relations and cooperation; the progress of the fight for peace; the eighteenth amendment under the topic "Prohibition on Trial, What is the Verdict?" the work of the church in the army and navy; interpreting the gospel to the modern man and evangelism as a primary business of the church.

The federal council, which meets once every four years, is made up of about four hundred representatives chosen by the national bodies of the thirty-two denominations, with a total adult membership of more than twenty million persons.

Dr. Robert E. Speer, of New York City, is president of the council and will preside at the main sessions of the executive committee.

"ALWAYS AT WORK ON TIME"

ONE TRIBUTE TO WANAMAKER Philadelphia, Dec. 13. — Among the host of tributes to the memory of John Wanamaker, merchant prince, religious leader and philanthropist, which continued to pour into this city today from all sections of the country, this one stands as unique.

"He was always at work on time." With these seven words, Mr. Wanamaker's first office boy, George W. Stull, summarized the secret of the world-renowned merchant's success. The one-time office boy, who swept out, ran errands, delivered parcels and gradually learned to do more important routine work for his employer, now is superintendent of the store.

The bridal wreath is usually formed in Germany of myrtle branches; in America, England, and France of orange blossoms; in Italy and Switzerland of white roses; in Spain, of red roses and carnations; in the islands of Greece, of vine leaves, and in Czechoslovakia, of rosemary.

WHO GOT THE $901

The Chronicle learns from Augusta colored folks who attended a revival at Dover Tuesday night, being conducted by a Mrs. Davis, a colored evangelist, that Mrs. Davis lost $901 in bills which she had secreted in her stockings. Quite a number were at the mourners bench and Mrs. Davis was down on her knees, praying for them. Shortly after arising she discovered her loss, and as may be imagined there was considerable hubbub kicked up over the loss, but at last accounts the money had not been recovered. What bothers us, how did anyone slip his or her hand in this good lady's stocking without her knowing it, and if she did know it why did she not rouse the natives at the time? If it was a man's hand, at least the average man's, the roughness of the member would have at least tickled the flesh as it stole to the hiding place of the coin. Chances are that the guilty individual thought that $901 was too much for any minister to carry around.—Augusta Chronicle.

WOODFORD COUNTY MAN, MISSING 34 YEARS, TURNS UP

Ben Hiter, Long Ago Declared Dead By Courts, Calls On Sister In Kansas City; Message Gives No Particulars Concerning Absence.

Versailles, Ky., Dec. 15. — Having mysteriously disappeared from his home thirty-four years ago and declared legally dead after efforts of his relatives to locate him proved fruitless, Ben Hiter, formerly of Woodford county, older son of the late D. Porter Hiter, has appeared at the home of his sister, Mrs. Wilbur Thornton (formerly Miss Laura Hiter) in Kansas City, according to word received here.

No particulars were given in the message, which came from Mrs. E. A. Grant, of Newark, N. J., another sister, as to Hiter's whereabouts during the past thirty-four years or as to the reasons for his disappearance.
The Hiters were prominent in Woodford county, owning a large estate on the Clifton pike three miles from Versailles, now the home of Joseph C. Carter. Ben Hiter's mother was Miss Harlan, sister of the late Chief Justice John M. Harlan, of the United States Supreme Court. Hiter, who is now about thirty-four years old, left home shortly after his mother's death and went west. Efforts to find him were of no avail and he was reported to have died in a hospital in the far west.
After his father's death, advertisements were inserted in newspapers over the country without result; Ben Hiter was declared legally dead by the courts long ago and his father's estate divided among the other heirs.
